24. In the event of a Member transferring part of the Shares represented by the same share certificate in his name, a new certificate in respect of the balance thereof shall be issued in his name without payment. In the event of joint holders, the Company shall not be bound to issue more than 1 certificate, and delivery of 1 certificate for a Share to any 1 of the several joint holders thereof shall be sufficient delivery to all. Every certificate shall be signed by the Secretary or some other person nominated by the Directors for the purpose and shall specify and denote the number of Shares, and class, if any, to which it relates and the nominal value thereof.
25. No certificate shall be issued by the Company in relation to any Listed Security and the holder thereof shall be entitled to receive from the applicable Central Securities Depository a document evidencing his registration as a holder of Listed Securities of the Company in the number of Listed Securities held, or such other evidence as may from time to time be prescribed by or under any applicable rules or regulations.
26. The provisions of Articles 23 and 24 shall apply mutatis mutandis to certificates required to be issued by the Act or other applicable law in connection with other securities issued by the Company.
27. CALLS ON SHARES

29. The Directors may from time to time make calls upon the Members in respect of any monies unpaid on their Shares (whether on account of their nominal value or by way of premium) and not by the conditions of allotment thereof made payable at fixed times, provided that no call shall be payable at less than one month from the date fixed for the payment of the last preceding call, and each Member shall (subject to receiving at least 14 days' notice specifying the time or times and place of payment) pay to the Company, at the time or times and place so specified, the amount called on his Shares. A call may be made, revoked or postponed as the Directors may determine.

33. Any sum which by the terms of issue of a Share becomes payable on allotment or at any fixed date, whether on account of the nominal value of the Share or by way of premium, shall for the purposes of these regulations be deemed to be a call duly made and payable on the date on which, by the terms of issue, the same becomes payable, and in case of non-payment, all the relevant provisions of these regulations as to payment of interest and expenses, forfeiture or otherwise shall apply as if such sum had become payable by virtue of a call duly made and notified.
34. The Directors may differentiate between the Members as to the amount of calls to be paid and the times of payment.
35. The Directors may, if they think fit, receive from any Member willing to advance the same, all or any part of the moneys uncalled and unpaid upon any Shares held by him, and upon all or any of the moneys so advanced may (until the same would, but for such advance, become payable) pay interest at such annual rate, not exceeding the maximum rate allowed by law, as may be agreed upon between the Directors and the Member paying such sum in advance.
36. The entitlement to receive any dividend and/or the right to exercise any privilege as a Member, including the right to vote at general meetings, shall be suspended until the Member shall have paid all calls for the time being due and payable on every Share held by him, together with interests and expenses, if any.

TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSION OF SECURITIES

Listed Securities

37. All Listed Securities of the Company and/or Securities held or evidenced in dematerialised or uncertificated form, the register of which is maintained in a Central Securities Depository, shall be freely transferable and Articles 39 and 40 below shall not apply in respect of such Securities.
38. All transfers and transmissions of Listed Securities, the register of which is maintained by a Central Securities Depository, shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the relevant Market (and/or the rules and regulations of the relevant Central Securities Depository) as may be in force from time to time and these Articles shall apply only insofar as they are not inconsistent with those rules and regulations. Subject to any applicable law and/or rule, Listed Securities may also be traded outside the Market on which they are admitted to trading.

Unlisted Securities

39. Any Securities other than Listed Securities shall be transferred by an instrument in writing, which instrument shall be in any form that is accepted by the Directors (together with such evidence as the Directors may reasonably require as evidence of the right of the transferor to make the transfer, and, if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person so to do), which instrument of transfer shall be executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferee, and the transferor shall be deemed to remain a holder of the Equity Security or Debt Security until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members or the Register of Debentures, as applicable, in respect thereof. In no case may a part of a Share constitute the object of a transfer or transmission. The instrument of transfer must be delivered to the Company at the Registered Office or at such other place as the Board may from time to time determine for registration purposes and, in respect of a transfer of Shares, must be accompanied by the share certificates of the Shares to which it relates.
40. In the case of an Equity Security which is not a Listed Security, the Directors may decline to recognise any instrument of transfer and refuse to register the transfer if:
- (a) duty in terms of the Duty on Documents and Transfers Companies Act (Chapter 364 of the Laws of Malta), if applicable, has not been paid in relation to the instrument of transfer;
 - (b) the instrument of transfer is not deposited at the Registered Office or at such other place as the Directors may from time to time determine for registration purposes or is not accompanied by the share certificates of the Shares to which it relates and/or such other evidence as the Directors may reasonably require as evidence of the right of the transferor to make the transfer (and, if the instrument of transfer is executed by some other person on his behalf, the authority of that person so to do); or
 - (c) the instrument of transfer is not in respect of only 1 class of Shares; or
 - (d) the instrument of transfer is in respect of Shares pledged in terms of a pledge agreement duly notified to the Company and the instrument of transfer is not accompanied by the pledgee's consent to the transfer; or
 - (e) the instrument of transfer is in respect of Shares the transfer of which has been prohibited by law or by an order of the court.

If the Directors refuse to register a transfer, they shall within 2 months of the date on which the transfer is lodged with the Company, send to the transferee notice of the refusal and except in the case of fraud, return to him the instrument of transfer. The Company may retain any instrument of transfer or a notarised copy thereof that is duly registered.

Suspension of transfers

41. (a) Other than in the case of Listed Securities, the registration of transfers of the Company's Securities may be suspended at such times and for such periods as the Directors may from time to time determine, provided always that such registration shall not be suspended for more than 30 days in any one calendar year.

- (b) The suspension of registration of transfers of Listed Securities shall be effected in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

Transmission due to death of Member

42. In the case of the death of a Member, his Shares shall devolve upon his successors by will or by operation of law, as the case may be, but nothing herein contained shall release the person or persons to whom the Shares shall devolve, whether sole or joint, from any liability in respect of any Share solely or jointly held by him/them.
43. Any person becoming entitled to a Share in consequence of the death of a Member shall, upon producing satisfactory evidence of his title as the Directors may from time to time require, have the right to be registered himself as the holder of the Share or to make such transfer thereof as the deceased Member would have himself been entitled.
44. Any person becoming entitled to a Listed Security as a consequence of the death of a Member shall, upon producing such evidence of his title as the relevant Central Securities Depository and/or Market may from time to time require, have the right to be registered himself as the holder of the Listed Security or to transfer such Listed Security.
45. Where, in the case referred to in Article 43, a person so becoming entitled elects to be registered himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects. If he elects to have another person registered he shall testify his election by executing to that person a transfer of the Share. All the provisions relating to the transfer of Shares in these Articles shall be applicable to such transfer; provided that the Directors, in the case of Shares that are not Listed Securities, may at any time give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the Share, and if the notice is not complied with within 90 days, the Directors may thereafter withhold payments of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable in respect of the Share until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.
46. A person becoming entitled to a Share by reason of the death of the holder shall be entitled to the same dividends and other rights and advantages to which he would be entitled if he were the registered holder of the Share, except that he shall not before being registered as a Member in respect of the Share be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of the Company.

FORFEITURE OR SURRENDER OF SHARES

47. If a Member fails to pay any call or instalment of a call on the day appointed for payment thereof, the Directors may, at any time thereafter during such time as any call or part thereof remains unpaid, require payment of so much of the call or instalment as is unpaid, together with any interest which may have accrued thereon, by means of a notice which shall also name a further day (not earlier than the expiration of 14 days from the date of service of the notice) on or before which the payment required by the notice is to be made, and shall state that in the event of non-payment at or before the time appointed, the Shares in respect of which the call was made will be liable to forfeiture.
48. If the requirements of such notice as aforesaid are not complied with, any Share in respect of which the notice has been given may at any time thereafter, before the payment required by the notice has been made, be forfeited by a resolution of the Directors to that effect, or otherwise be surrendered in favour of the Company by the Member to whom the said notice is addressed, if the Directors accept such surrender. The Member shall however retain the right to all dividends declared before the call was made and which have not been paid.

49. When any Share has been forfeited in accordance with these Articles, notice of the forfeiture shall forthwith be given to the holder of the Share or to the person entitled to the Share by transmission, as the case may be, and an entry of such notice having been given and of the forfeiture with the date thereof, shall forthwith be made in the Register of Members relating to the Share; but the provisions of this Article are for guidance only and no forfeiture shall be in any manner invalidated by any omission or neglect to give such notice or to make such entry as aforesaid.
50. A forfeited or surrendered Share may be sold or otherwise disposed of on such terms and in such manner as the Directors think fit, and the Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the Share on any sale or disposal thereof and may execute a transfer in favour of the person to whom the Share is sold or disposed of, who shall thereupon be registered as a holder of the Share. At any time before a sale or disposal, the forfeiture or surrender may be cancelled on such terms as the Directors may deem fit.

PROVIDED that while forfeited or surrendered Shares remain with, or under the control of the Company, they shall carry no voting rights and shall be subject to the provisions of article 109 of the Companies Act.

51. A person whose Shares have been forfeited or surrendered shall cease to be a Member in respect of the forfeited or surrendered Shares, but shall, notwithstanding, remain liable to pay to the Company all the moneys, which, at the date of the forfeiture, were due and payable by him to the Company in respect of the Shares. His liability shall however cease if and when the Company shall have received payment in full of all such moneys in respect of the Shares.
52. The Directors may accept the surrender of any Share which they are entitled to cause to be forfeited in terms of these Articles. The same consequences shall arise from the surrender of such Share as if the Directors had passed a resolution for the forfeiture thereof in terms of Article 48, and any Share so surrendered may be sold or disposed of as a forfeited Share.

ALTERATIONS TO SHARE CAPITAL

53. The Company may by extraordinary resolution:
- (a) increase its authorised share capital by such amount as the resolution prescribes;
 - (b) consolidate and divide all or any of its share capital into Shares of larger amount than its existing Shares;
 - (c) subject to the provisions of these Articles, sub-divide its Shares, or any of them, into Shares of smaller amount and the resolution may determine that, as between the Shares resulting from the sub-division, any of them may have any preference or advantage as compared with the others;
 - (d) cancel Shares which, at the date of the passing of the resolution, have not been taken or agreed to be taken by any person and diminish the amount to its share capital by the amount of the Shares so cancelled; and/or
 - (e) reduce its share capital, so long as this is superior to the minimum prescribed by law, any capital redemption reserve and any share premium account.

PLEDGING OF SECURITIES

54. (a) Subject to the provisions of the Companies Act and to the applicable terms of issue, any Securities of the Company may be pledged by the registered holder thereof in favour of any person as security for any obligation; provided that any terms of issue of the Securities may provide that the securities issued pursuant thereto may not be the subject of a pledge.
- (b) Upon the Company being notified of such a pledge agreement, the Company shall record that fact in the relevant register, and the Company shall recognise all rights validly granted to any third parties and shall act according to and consistently with the terms of such agreement in all matters. Additionally, the Company shall also notify any Central Securities Depository that has been delegated the duties of maintaining and updating the relevant register the Securities.
- (c) In the case of a pledge of Shares, in so far as and to the extent that such a pledge agreement validly vests third parties with rights pertaining to the Shares normally exercisable by the Members, such rights shall be exercisable by the third parties as though they were the Members to the exclusion of the registered Member or Members.

REGISTERS

55. Any register for Securities shall be kept at the Registered Office, using any mechanical or electronic system, provided that legible evidence can be produced therefrom to satisfy the requirements of the applicable law and of these Articles.

PROVIDED that the Directors may delegate the duties relating to the maintaining and updating of the relevant registers to a Central Securities Depository or any other equivalent entity.

GENERAL MEETINGS

56. The Company shall in each financial year hold a general meeting as its annual general meeting at such time and place as the Directors shall appoint, together with any other general meeting that may be called or requisitioned by any Director, or by the Members as provided hereafter.

Furthermore, where the right to request items to be put on the agenda of the general meeting or to table draft resolutions to be adopted at a general meeting requires a modification of the agenda for the general meeting that has already been communicated to the Members, the Company shall make available a revised agenda in the same manner as the previous agenda in advance of the applicable Record Date or, if no such Record Date applies, sufficiently in advance of the date of the general meeting so as to enable other Members to appoint a proxy.

69. Any notice convening a general meeting or an adjourned general meeting may be sent to Members by pre-paid mail at their last known residential address.

PROCEEDINGS AT GENERAL MEETINGS

73. The Company may request Members to supply any such document as the Company may require to verify the Members identity for the purposes of participating and voting at a general meeting, provided that the Company may only impose such requirements as are necessary to ensure the identification of Members and only to the extent that they are proportionate to the achievement of that objective.

74. All business shall be deemed special that is transacted at an extraordinary general meeting, and also that is transacted at an annual general meeting with the exception of:

- (a) declaring a dividend,
- (b) the consideration of financial statements,

- (d) the appointment or election of Directors,
- (e) the appointment of auditors and

PROVIDED that if no Director is willing to act as chairman, the Members shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the general meeting.

80. The Chairman may, with the consent of any meeting at which a quorum is present (and shall if so directed by the meeting) adjourn the meeting from time to time and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unattended or unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place. When a meeting is adjourned for 30 days or more, notice of the adjourned meeting shall be given as in the case of an original meeting. Save as aforesaid it shall not be necessary to give any notice of an adjourned meeting or of the business to be transacted at an adjourned meeting.
81. At any general meeting and at any meeting of shareholders, a resolution put to a vote shall be determined and decided by means of a poll.
82. On a poll taken at a meeting of a company or a meeting of any class of members of that company, a member entitled to more than one vote need not, if he votes, use all his votes or cast all the votes he uses in the same way.
83. Polls shall be taken in such manner as the Chairman directs and the result of the poll shall be deemed to be the resolution of the meeting at which the poll was taken.

84. In the case of equality of votes on a poll, the chairman of the meeting shall have a second or casting vote.
85. A poll on the election of a Chairman or on a question of adjournment shall be taken forthwith. A poll on any other question shall be taken at such time as the Chairman of the meeting directs, and any business other than that for which a poll has been demanded may proceed pending the taking of the poll.

88. No Member shall be entitled to vote at any general meeting unless all calls or other sums presently payable by in respect of the Shares held by such Member have been paid.
89. No objection shall be raised to the qualifications of any voter except at the meeting or adjourned meeting at which the vote objected to is given or tendered and every vote not disallowed at such meeting shall be valid for all purposes. Any such objection made in due time shall be referred to the chairman of the meeting, whose decision shall be final and conclusive.

RIGHT TO ASK QUESTIONS

90. Every Member shall have the right to ask questions which are pertinent and related to items on the agenda of a general meeting and to have such questions answered by the Directors or such person as the Directors may delegate for that purpose subject to any reasonable measures that the Company may take to ensure the identification of the Member. This right shall also be enjoyed by a proxy holder appointed by the Member. The Company may provide 1 overall answer to questions having the same content. An answer to a question shall not be required where the Chairman of the general meeting determines that:
 - (a) to give an answer would interfere unduly with the preparation for the meeting, involve the disclosure of confidential information or cause prejudice to the business interests of the Company;

- (b) the answer has already been given on the Company's website in the form of an answer to a question;
- (c) it is not in the interests of good order of the meeting that the question be answered; or
- (d) the Company is unable to provide an immediate reply, provided that such reply is subsequently posted on the website of the Company.

PROXIES

- 91. Every person entered into the Register of Members as at the Record Date shall be entitled to appoint 1 person to act as proxy holder to attend and vote at a general meeting instead of him. The proxy holder shall enjoy the same rights to speak and ask questions in the general meeting as those to which the member thus represented would be entitled.
- 92. Where a Member specifies in the proxy form how his proxy is to vote, the proxy form itself shall constitute the vote on condition that the appointed proxy attends the meeting or any adjournment thereof.
- 93. A proxy holder shall vote in accordance with any instructions given by the appointing Member, keep a record of such instructions for at least 5 years and, confirm, upon a request of the appointing Member, that the voting instructions have been complied with.
- 94. A proxy holder shall not transfer his proxy to another person. Where, however, a proxy holder is a legal person, it may exercise the powers conferred upon it through a duly appointed corporate representative.
- 95. The appointment of a proxy shall be an instrument in such form as the Directors shall from time to time determine; provided that any such instrument must always allow a Member to indicate how he/she/it would like his proxy to vote in relation to each resolution proposed.
- 96. Such instrument of proxy shall be in writing under the hand of the appointer or his attorney, duly authorised in writing, or if such appointment is by a government or corporation, under its common seal or under the hand of some officer duly authorised in its behalf. The instrument appointing a proxy may contain a direction to the proxy to vote for or against a particular resolution or resolutions but unless such a direction be given the proxy may vote as he thinks fit; and an instrument appointing a proxy shall be deemed to include the power to demand, join or concur in demanding a poll on behalf of the appointer.
- 97. A Member shall also be entitled to:
 - (a) appoint a Proxy by written notification or by Electronic Means, to an address or electronic mail address specified by the Company;
 - (b) have the electronic notification of such appointment accepted by the Company; and
 - (c) have at least 1 effective method of notification of a Proxy by Electronic Means offered to it by a Company.
- 98. The instrument appointing a proxy, together with the power of attorney (if any) under which it is signed or a notarially certified copy thereof or the written instrument appointing a proxy pursuant to the last preceding Article shall be respectively deposited or received at the Registered Office at least 24 hours before the time appointed for holding the meeting, adjourned meeting or the taking of a poll at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote; otherwise the person so named shall not be entitled to vote in respect thereof. The provisions of this and the immediately preceding Article shall apply mutatis mutandis to the revocation of the appointment of a proxy.

99. A proxy holder shall, prior to a general meeting, disclose to the Member who appointed him any facts of which he is aware and which may be relevant for that Member in assessing any risk that the proxy holder might pursue any interest other than the interest of such Member including, but not limited to:
- (a) whether he is a controlling Member of the Company, or is another entity controlled by such Member;
 - (b) whether he is a Director of the Company, or of a controlling Member or controlled entity referred to in paragraph (a);

At the second meeting, the resolution shall be deemed to have been validly carried if it has been passed by a Member or Members having the right to attend and vote at the meeting holding in the aggregate not less than 75% in nominal value of the Shares represented and entitled to vote at the meeting. However, if more than half (in nominal value) of all the Shares having the right to vote at the meeting are represented at that second meeting, a simple majority (in nominal value) of such Shares so represented shall suffice.

103. An extraordinary resolution shall be required for the following:
- (a) any deletion, addition and/or amendment to the Memorandum or Articles of Association of the Company (provided that so long as any of the Company's Securities are admitted to listing, the prior written authorisation of any relevant listing authority and/or competent authority shall also be required for any such deletion, addition and/or amendment (where such authorisation is required in terms of applicable law));
